BOTH MEN WERE KILLED.

Two Prominent Miners of Bellaire Meet an Awful Death

ON THE B. & O. TRACKS AT GLENDALE

They Recently Removed from Franklin to Bellaire and Were Going to Glendale to Accept Positions in the Mines There When Struck by a Passing Passenger Train.

William Smith and Fred Eastman, two well-known coal miners, left Bellaire yesterday morning for the Glendale coal works, just north of Moundsville, and word reached that place an hour or so later that both were killed. It could be scarcely believed, but it proved only too true. Both were above the average in intelligence, were sober and industrious men, and had gone to that mine to accept positions, one as foreman and the other to assist him.

When they reached the works they were taking a look at the tipples and rigging and it was while doing this they met their death. Smith and Eastman were standing on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad watching the men tip the coal. The Baltimore & Ohio accommodation, that runs between Wheeling and Moundsville, was approaching and the men on the tipples called to them to look out. Instead of stopping back, both men attempted to cross the track in front of the engine. They were struck, and strangely enough both killed outright by having their heads crushed in.

One was thrown to one side of the track and the other to the opposite side. They were dead when picked up. William Smith was for years the mine boss at Franklin, O., but moved to Bellaire recently and lived with his wife and four children in the First ward there. The news of the sudden death was a terrible shock to them. Fred Eastman was a single man who had also worked at Franklin. The bodies of both men were taken to Bellaire yesterday evening and taken to the home of the family of Smith. Both were members of the Knights of Pythias lodge there and will be buried under the auspices of that lodge.

In Squire Gillespy's Court.

Squire Gillespy was kept pretty busy last night trying petty criminal cases. Louis Coleman was arraigned on a charge of assault and battery on George Merritt, and was fined $5 and costs. Lizzie Coleman, a daughter of Louis, was also given a hearing on the same charge, but was dismissed.

Robert Faddis was up on two charges of assault on Peter Straus, a one-armed German. He was fined $5 and costs on one charge and $10 and costs on the other.

John Snowden, colored, was charged with obtaining $2 from T. E. Wheaton by false pretenses. His hearing was set for 4 p. m. to-day, and to secure his appearance he was sent to jail.

DECORATION DAY EXERCISES

At Martin's Ferry—A Fine Programme Arranged For the Day's Observance.

The G. A. R. has completed all of the arrangements for Decoration Day at Martin's Ferry. The parade will be headed by the mayor and police and consist of the G. A. R., secret societies, public school, fire department, Grand Army band, drum corps, vehicles, etc. The mounted officers will be Major John A. Brown, Chief Marshal, William H. Hobbs, chief of staff, James C. Tannehill, adjutant general, R. F. Brady, George W. Tweedy, J. B. Montgomery, Richard S. Stewart, M. Aldredge, Harry Romich, William S. Ellefritz and Dr. A. R. Ong, aids. The parade will move at 9 o'clock and march over this route: East on Hanover to First, South to Jefferson, West to Fourth, North to Hanover, West to Fifth, North to Seabright's grove, where the exercises will be held. The vocal music will be in charge of Judge J. C. Gray. The address of the day will be delivered by Hon. J. W. Nichols, followed by addresses by members of the G. A. R.

The exercises over, the old soldiers and others will decorate the graves of the fallen heroes in Walnut Grove and Riverview cemeteries. The ministers are cordially invited to participate in the exercises, and all persons having flowers are requested to leave them at the G. A. R. hall or hand them to soldiers in the line. All honorably discharged soldiers and sailors are invited to join the G. A. R. The Grand Army band will report at 8 o'clock and the aides to the chief of the staff at 8:30. The parade will form as follows:

First—Mayor, marshal and police, chief marshal and aids, Grand Army band, Thoburn Post and all old soldiers in the order named. Thoburn Post and all old soldiers on West Hanover, right resting on Fourth.

Second—Public schools on South Fourth, right on Hanover; parochial school on North Fourth, right on Hanover.

Third—Unit Council No. 11, Etna Council No. 38, C. O. A. M., and other orders on North Fourth, right on Hanover.

Fourth—Fire department on South Fifth, right on Hanover.

Fifth—Vehicles containing feeble old soldiers, other vehicles and horsemen on North Fifth, right on Hanover.

The indications are that the parade will be the largest in the history of Martin's Ferry. Business will be generally suspended.

Memorial Day at Bridgeport.

Brasserie Post, G. A. R., of Bridgeport, will celebrate Decoration Day next Thursday in an appropriate way. A fine programme has been prepared, which is as follows: At 8 o'clock a. m., free conveyances will be furnished for those desiring to visit Weeks' cemetery, and at 2 o'clock p. m., conveyances will start for Linwood cemetery at twenty cents fare for the round trip. In the early evening the new fountain to be placed on the corner of Bank and Bridge streets, will be presented to the town and received in a speech by Mayor Williams. After this ceremony there will be a grand rally held in the opera house. Hon. C. L. Weems will be present and address the meeting.

The Day at Bellaire.

programme for Decoration Day, in which all the patriotic orders and the school children will participate. They will meet at their hall at 8:30 in the morning and proceed to Ross Hill cemetery, where the beautiful service of the post and corps will be performed, after which details will decorate the graves there and in other neighboring cemeteries. In the evening an interesting programme will be given in the First M. E. church. The address for the occasion will be made by Congressman Lorenzo Danford, and there will be an abundance of music, a feature of this being a solo by Mrs. O. W. Holmes.

Private Home Picnic on Decoration Day.

On Thursday a private dance will be given in A. L. McCulloch's barn, near Clinton. The committee having the affair in charge consists of Will Macleary, James Noble, Charles Dick, Joe Weitzel, Milton McCulloch and Galia Mitchell. A party will go out in a wagon in the morning and picnic until noon, when another party will join them, also going out in a wagon, and in the evening others will drive out in carriages and buggies. Dancing will be kept up from 2 p. m. until midnight. A piano will be hauled out and Prof. Killmeyer will furnish the music.

To Picnic at Sycamore Grove.

This morning Charles Zulauf will take twenty-five copies of Wheeling people out to Sycamore Grove in his big picnic wagon, and they will enjoy the day and evening in a private outing there, returning by the same conveyance this evening.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats.

The River Interest.

The local packets arrived and departed on time yesterday.

The Ben Har passed down for Parkersburg at 7 o'clock last evening.

Commodore Johnston is in Cincinnati looking after the new packet Virginia.

The marks at the public landing last evening showed 4 feet 11 inches and falling.

The H. K. Bedford will be the Pittsburgh packet this morning, leaving at 8 o'clock.

Three dikes are to be built by the government in the Ohio river between Scuffletown bar and the mouth of Green river.

The popular packet Keystone State will pass down this morning at 8 o'clock for Cincinnati. Captain C. W. Knox is in command, and Clerk Henry Best presides in the office.

Pilot Gus Seiforth has made three hundred and fifty-three round trips between Louisville and New Orleans as pilot on towboats, and in all that time has only lost two coal boats. A good record.

The United States dredgeboats, Ohio and Oswego, are engaged at the foot of Blanny. The channel is now on the right side of the island between the two government lights. There is piling being driven on the left, shutting up the outside way entirely. At Guyandotte the channel is on the left, piling driven out from right shore near ferry landing, nine hundred feet, over one-half the width of the river.
